

A Special Thank You to the following:

We appreciate your contributions & support to Our Veterans, Military, & Community.

Dahlonega Women's Club
Wal-Mart
Banister Funeral Home
Masonic Lodge #36
Dahlonega Funeral Home
Fields Monuments
Larry Martel

For approximately 2 hours following the program the exact replica of the TOMB of the UNKNOWN
will be available for an up close viewing.

Questions from the audience along with light refreshments will be available immediately following the program.

The guard for the service is provided by the Lumpkin County JROTC Cadets.
The routine will be the same as the one that is conducted at the Arlington National Cemetery, in Washington, D.C.

Dahlonega, Lumpkin County

Memorial Day

May 30, 2011

Remembering & Honoring
Those who died to preserve our Freedom

Grant Them Eternal Peace

Guest Speaker
Chaplain Paul Voorhees

Reverend Paul Voorhees has been nominated by the Georgia Senate to serve as one of the Governor's State Chaplains. He is a licensed and ordained minister. In 1978 and 1979 Chaplain Voorhees traveled to South America to help build churches. In 2003 he was in Amman, Jordan and Baghdad, Iraq to visit with and minister to the troops during Operational Iraqi Freedom. In 2010 Chaplain Voorhees returned to Iraq to be with the 3rd Infantry Division. He served on the National Staff, Royal Rangers, and Assemblies of God from 1967-1985. Paul currently serves on the board of directors of the National Infantry Association, is a member of the AUSA, a charter member of the chaplains division of the Georgia Sheriffs Association and is a chaplain and reserve deputy in the Harris county, Georgia Sheriff's Department. Chaplain Voorhees is the chaplain of Worldwide Army Ranger, Inc. and of the Antioch VFD. He has been a partner-in-education with Stowers Elementary School, Fort Benning and is the recipient of many other community citations. Chaplain Voorhees was selected as the "Small Business Giant" in 2003 by the Columbus Georgia Chamber of Commerce. Chaplain Voorhees is working on his first book "21 Suggestions for Extreme Happiness".

Memorial Day Program

10:00 a.m. -11:00 a.m.

Activity	Speaker
Welcome	John Buckman Chairman Veterans Advisory Comm.
Opening Prayer	Capt. Charles Estanol Chaplain, 5th Ranger Training Bn.
Posting Colors	Lumpkin County HS JROTC
Pledge of Allegiance	Bruce Hoffman Vice-Chair Veterans Advisory Comm.
National Anthem	Hannah Chapman
Introduction Guests	John Buckman
Letter from Governor Nathan Deal	Larry Martel
Georgia State Representative	Amos Amerson
Georgia State Senator	Steve Gooch
Chair County Commission	Dr. John Raber
Mayor Pro Tern Dahlonega	Gerald Lord
Introduction Keynote Speaker	John Buckman
Keynote Speaker	Chaplain Paul Voorhees
Wreath Placements	Tomb of the Unknown Steve Gooch State Senator Veterans Park Gloria Van Galder Marine Corps League Auxiliary
Amazing Grace	Hannah Chapman
Closing Prayer	Chaplain Estanol
Rifle Salute	Veterans Alliance Honor Guard

TAPS